Body of Rev. William Chalmers Brought Here for Burial.

The remains of Rev. William Chalmers of Riverhead, N. Y., were brought here on Saturday night and at noon Sunday were buried in Southview cemetery with a Masonic lodge of this place for an escort. Mr. Chalmers had been gradually failing for several weeks, and death was not unexpected. Mr. Chalmers was a clergyman of the Congregational denomination, who had been located at Riverhead for several years, and he married Jennie, daughter of the late James P. Cleveland. They had passed many seasons here, but this summer he was not able to come here. Mrs. Lora Michaels, who has been here for the summer, and who is an aunt of Mrs. Chalmers, went on and was with her for a month or more, and returned here with the remains. They were also accompanied by two members of the Masonic fraternity from the place where they lived, the latter returning on Sunday afternoon.

Dr. F. C. Angell left on Friday night, in answer to a summons, to report at Boston, where he has the appointment as first lieutenant in the medical corps. Miss Hattie Rand of Brookton, Mass., arrived here on Saturday and is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. G. C. Stevens, and other relatives.
Dr. L. W. Clough of Enosburg Falls was in town last week to assist in an operation at the sanatorium, performed on Mrs. George Bassingthwaite of Stratford, who was a former patient of his. Dr. Clough's son, Harmon Clough, is a member of the 9th U. S. Infantry, now in France.

Mrs. F. Elizabeth Stockwell, who has been in the sanatorium for several weeks for treatment, has returned to her home in Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sargent went to Rutland last week and from that city Mr. Sargent continued his journey to Jacksonville, Fla., where he is now located in business. Mrs. Sargent returned, but to-day started with her son, Simon, and Miss Elsie Kilburn on her journey home.

J. G. Mann left here last week, after a several weeks' stay in town for Los Angeles, expecting to stop off at his Dakota ranch, before going to his home.

A daughter, Laura May, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lavinia Butterfield at the sanatorium last Thursday.

A son was born last Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Will Camp of South Randolph. A war conference will be held this week Friday evening in the Chandler Music hall under the auspices of the Vermont public safety committee. Other meetings of this character have been arranged in the county, and at this place, Hon. George Adams of London will be the speaker, he representing the British war office.

Mrs. A. H. Morse of Waterbury arrived in town last week for a month's stay with her sister, Mrs. P. R. Chase, and will also be with her husband, who is temporarily employed at the corn factory in this place.

Mrs. C. E. Root, while attending the harvest supper at the parish house on Friday night, and while marching with Mrs. C. H. Jones, had a fall which has seriously sprained one side and leg, keeping her confined to her bed. Mrs. Jones and she both fell, the former striking her head against a table, cutting quite a gash, but from the effects of which she has nearly recovered.
Miss Theodora Lebrum of Claremont, N. H., is the guest of her uncle, E. P. Rye, and family.

There was an attendance of about 150 at the harvest supper at the parish house Friday night, the price per plate being 35 cents.

Miss Katie Kenny of Boston is passing a few days at the home of her uncle, Thomas Connolly.
J. J. and H. E. Stimes have been in New Haven, Conn., for a several days' business trip.

Deaths of Michele Piedmonte and Charles H. Cutler.

Michele Piedmonte, aged 39 years, died Saturday morning about 7:30 after a year's illness of which the last few months were very severe, cancer of the stomach and liver being the cause of death. A few weeks ago he was at Mary Hitchcock hospital at Hanover, N. H., but the nature of his illness was such that no operation was performed. Mr. Piedmonte came here about five years ago from Milford, Mass., and the remains were taken to that place this morning for burial, accompanied by the widow, who was Caroline Savino, her mother, Mrs. Paolo Savino, and a neighbor, Domenico DeCello. On the afternoon train yesterday Mr. Savino returned to Milford, accompanying the children. A party of 40 or more friends accompanied the family to the railway station. Among the floral offerings was a beautiful wreath from the granite cutters of Bethel, among whom the deceased was prominent and popular. A group of friends came from Barre Saturday evening and returned last evening. They included Mr. and Mrs. Diamante Casaccio, Vito Cervone, Tommasi Carlo and Luigi Cenci. About three years ago Mr. Piedmonte built the pleasant home on South Main street which now is owned and occupied by John Morell.

He was a former resident of Stockbridge and his wife, who survives him, was from that town. Together they conducted a summer hotel at Hampton beach last season. They had been engaged many years in hotel or restaurant business. The remains were taken to Lawrence Saturday afternoon. Mr. Cutler became seriously ill soon after arriving here 10 days ago and had not rallied appreciably although on Friday he sat up three hours and seemed to feel much better. He was a native of West Andover, Mass., and his parents were Herbert W. Cutler and Ethel (Annis) Cutler.

Bishop George Y. Bliss was at the Episcopal church Friday evening, confirmed a class of four persons, consisting of Mrs. Annie Abbott, Miss Mary Abbott, Miss Harriet Jebb and Mrs. J. Howard Myott, recognized the standing of Mr. Myott as a member previously confirmed, and preached on "Jesus, the Good Shepherd." He said that the Romans and other pagans of the first century, feeling no need of help from above, laughed at the thought of needing a shepherd to care for them and that the same pagan spirit is in society to-day, boastful, self-sufficient and scornful to be governed by any shepherd. Early in the service the lights went out and did not come back, but several oil lamps were brought in and the service proceeded.

Vermont Defended.

With less than 150 recruits for the regular army to her credit since the war began, Vermont cannot be accused of encouraging militarism.—Springfield Republican.

This is one in a long series of dirty little slaps that the Republican has given our state. The Boston Transcript, which did something of this kind once, made the amende honorable when attention was called to the real facts, but the Republican, a paper which used to boast of giving the news and the truth about it, continues to malign the state on its northern border when it knows better. The Republican is simply nasty. Its own news columns have stated that in proportion of men furnished as volunteers for army service Vermont stood seventh among all of the states of the union. Because our boys elected to go into the National Guard or other branches of the service instead of the regular army is no disgrace or discredit. The Reformer has previously given facts and figures to show just where our little rock-ribbed state stands. If the total number of men in the service, all branches, could be accurately compiled, Vermont would rank much higher than seventh place. And when it comes to "militarism," which the contemporary talks about, a glance might be given to more than 50 Vermont boys mentioned in the Canadian casualty list. They are only a part of the contingent from this state that didn't wait for Washington to act, but who jumped across the border at the first opportunity to get a whack at Prussianism while Washington was dilly-dallying.

The Republican editorially has commented upon Kentucky counties which did not figure in the draft for the reason that they had already furnished more than their required quota when the draft came, but it has failed to recognize the fact that Windham county, Vermont, only 50 miles from Springfield, on its southern border, was the only district in New England to which the draft did not apply. Why doesn't the Republican tell just where Springfield and Hampden county stand as compared with Brattleboro and Windham county?—Brattleboro Reformer.

Children Like To Take It

Thousands of children have worms and their parents don't know what the trouble is. Symptoms of worms are: Dull, aching stomach, swollen upper lip, sour stomach, offensive breath, hard and full belly with occasional gripings and pains about the navel, pale face of leaden tint, eyes heavy and dull, twitching eyelids, itching of the nose, itching of the rectum, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, little red spots sticking out on tongue, starting during sleep.
Always keep Dr. Tru's Elixir on hand for such cases. It is promptly effective, and the nice thing about it is that children like to take it.
Mrs. H. W. Roberts of 302 Asylum street, Flint, Michigan, wrote to us: "I have used Dr. Tru's Elixir and as far as I know my little girl is cured of worms." She wrote in again later, saying: "Baby is fine, and I think it was your medicine that helped her."
Dr. Tru's Elixir, the Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has been on the market more than 40 years, and more and more people are using it all the time to expel worms, or to tone up the stomach and restore natural action of the bowels. Children, however, especially like to take it. Write us, Dr. Tru's Elixir, at 100 N. 3rd St., St. Paul, Minn.

I tried different medicines without help, and through my druggist learned of Vinol. V. S. A. NOTES

The boys inaugurated their first Sunday school by attending their respective churches and becoming members of the special student Sunday school classes. The church people are doing everything in their power to make the boys feel at home and many good times are promised in addition to helpful, up-to-the-minute religious services.

Monday morning a cloud was cast over our spirits by the news that Prof. G. A. Meigs, instructor of horticulture and mathematics, would have to undergo an operation for appendicitis without further delay. Tuesday noon we learned with delight that the operation had been successful and that all indications point to an early return of Mr. Meigs to his school duties.

Monday night the juniors underwent the ordeal of initiation at the hands of the seniors. All had a good time, for the juniors took their medicine like men. After the secret ceremonies were over came the annual parade to Squire Boyden's and to the homes of the professors to call for speeches. After it was all over both students and alumni agreed that it was the best ever.

Thursday morning the school was visited by the pupils of the Brookfield high school. G. W. Patterson, district superintendent of schools, accompanied them. After looking over the school buildings and the farm Professor Kibby led a demonstration in the judging of cattle. From here the visitors went down to Randolph to look around the school and the village there.

Columbus day at chapel exercises there was a special musical program, salute to the flag and readings by Oscar W. Cooley and Alfred J. Hall. Mr. Webster, father of Harold Webster, an alumnus of the school, addressed the boys. Principal Green attended a meeting in the interest of the school at Montpelier.

Edward Sawin and Cyrus Metcalf, two of our alumni, have gone to Washington, D. C., where they will be employed in the department of plant pathology. They will continue their studies at George Washington university.

Every pleasant afternoon the past week was given over to work at the school or upon the farms of our neighborhood. The school potato crop will soon be harvested and every indication points to a good yield. There has been but very little trouble with rot.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects.
Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Constipation Makes Baby Uncomfortable

When its tender little organs are bound up with a congestion of stomach waste in the bowels, baby is a mighty uncomfortable morsel of humanity, and reflects its discomfort in its disposition. If mother will just give it a tiny dose of a mild laxative, such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the congestion will quickly loosen and be expelled, and her child be normal and happy once more.
Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is especially desirable for children, because it contains no opiate or narcotic drug; being a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, mild and gentle in action, positive in effect, and very palatable. Children like it and take it readily. Druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for fifty cents a bottle, a trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 416 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.
